Let there be light at the Lyric!

WEST Dorset District Council has helped the Lyric Theatre see the light by approving new 'slimlite' double glazing – suitable for listed buildings – to replace the venue's dilapidated windows.

The application for the new windows, which will retain wooden frames, was approved last month in what has been called a 'landmark moment'.

It's thought that the Lyric is one of the first listed buildings in Dorset to be allowed to use this new glazing, which is thinner than standard glazing.

CLr Dave Rickard said: "The decision to allow the windows to be replaced with like for like wooden frames – handmade by a bespoke joiner to keep the original style and design – but with slimlite double glazed units in place of single glazing is a landmark moment."

"Although some enlightened councils have allowed double glazing in listed buildings for a few years now, West Dorset has vehemently been unmoveable on this.

"To get the development control committee to accept that the benefit of energy saving, heat saving, money saving, sound insulating double glazing, in making the Lyric an economically viable and more usable and comfortable community space for all the arts, outweighed the stubborn adherence to an out of date rule was a watershed moment."

"It will now be a benchmark for other listed buildings that struggle to keep the fabric of their buildings in good order and struggle with heating bills."

The windows at the Lyric Theatre – a Grade II listed building in Barrack Street that was bought by Niki McCretton in 2011 – have been in a very poor state of repair for a long time, allowing water ingress and damaging the fabric of the building, and there is a need to replace them.

Many of them have been completely boarded up, which has a severe impact on natural light inside the venue, meaning the lighting bill is very high.

The team at the Lyric, thought to be Bridport's oldest theatre, launched a five-week fundraising campaign 'Let There Be Light at the Lyric Theatre' in 2015 to reinstate the windows, aiming to raise £9,850.

The campaign managed to raise £14,000 and now with the plans approved, work can start on replacing the old windows, with new ones that follow the same design.

Niki McCretton said: "I am so thrilled that we can now begin to replace the boarded up windows with beautiful handmade windows using this innovative glazing that will make this wonderful historic building more environmentally sustainable."

"Thank you to all those who gave generously to make this happen and have campaigned for this important part of the restoration of the Lyric Theatre and to architect Terry Pinto who donated his expertise and time to the Lyric."

The plans include replacing the windows with 12mm slimlite glazing and wooden frames, which will look the same as the original ones.

Terry Pinto, of PAAD Architects, said: "We are more than aware of the issues facing it and donated our services for free."

"We care deeply about sustainability, design and our heritage, so it was blindingly obvious that a sensitive but eco-minded approach was needed."

"We have specified state of the art super thin glazing in traditional joinery, so the windows, whilst looking like the original ones, perform way and above traditional glazing."

"We are so proud that we have set a precedent in Dorset, as the Lyric Theatre will be the first listed building in the county that uses this glazing extensively, and proves that we can still have beautiful listed buildings which are kind to the environment."

The new windows will benefit a range of groups, including the puppet club and Bearkat Bistro that operate in the theatre.

John Dalton, a regular steward and maintenance volunteer, said: "These windows will make a huge difference to the many companies that come to the Lyric to develop new theatre, working during the day in the auditorium for weeks on end."

"It is a fantastic space to work in – 40ft by 30ft – and the new windows will look splendid from inside, which is the only place you can really get a good view of them."

"Having double glazing instead of plain glass is important for conservation as well as comfort – the last thing Friends of the Lyric want to happen is the new frames going rotten because of condensation pooling in the glazing bars!"

"And towering from head height to 18ft above the floor, no one will even realise they are double glazed as the modern slimlite glass is less than half the thick-

SCOUT leader Karen Yelland was born in Cheltenham and travelled and lived abroad as a child as her father was in the Armed Forces.

Before moving to Lyme Regis, she lived in Bristol where she met husband Paul, and they now have two sons who have just left the Woodroffe School.

Karen is a Beaver and Scout leader with the 1st Lym Valley Scouts, based in Uplyme, and has recently received her 10 year service award and the Chief Scouts Commendation Award.

Karen is also a staff nurse at Dorset County Hospital in Dorchester, working in the cardiology department.

● WHAT brought you to Lyme Regis?

We came to Lyme Regis 2006, so have been here for 10 years now. We came as we wanted a change for our children and used to come down here for our holidays and stay at Haye Farm and Monkton Wylde. Paul's father used to live in Halstock and they used to have a caravan at Freshwater beach. We loved it here and took a chance to move away from family and friends and find new jobs.

● HOW did you get involved in Scouting?

I have been in Scouting for most of my life. My father was into Scouting leader training and I went to my first camp at a few months old when we lived in Cyprus.

When we lived in Germany we took part in lots of international camps with Scouts from Europe and USA. My mother was Akela of Cubs and, when I was old enough at 18, I became a leader.

When I came to Lyme Regis I joined 1st Lym Valley Scout Group as a Beaver leader. Beaver Scouts are the youngest section of Scouts; they are girls and boys aged six to eight. They are such fun and it means you can have a good, fun time as well. I am also a Scout leader for ages 10 to 14 and do more adventurous activities and camps.

● WHY would you encourage children to get involved with Scouts?

I would encourage children and adults to join Scouting as we believe Scouting changes lives, which is why we want every young person in the UK to have the opportunity to be involved.

Scouts helps children and young adults reach their full potential. Scouts develop skills including teamwork, time management, leadership, initiative, planning, communication, self-motivation, cultural awareness and commitment. We help young people to get jobs, save lives and even change the world.

Today we have 457,000 youth members supported by 113,000 volunteers. Leaders are not paid they are volunteers and give up a lot of time as they have to have training in safeguarding, first aid and how to provide a balanced programme for the children.

● WHAT kind of activities do you do?

We do varied activities within each section of the group from Beavers, Cubs and Scouts. We have lots of hikes which involves map reading – a lost art with the rise of GPS and sat navs. The Scouts do rafting, camping, shooting, archery, climbing, fire lighting and cooking.

We do activities with other groups around East Devon like the parades and camps. We have been to Jamborees in Norfolk and Devon and recently I went with my son Josh to the Essex International Jamboree, where there were over 8,000 scouts from the UK and around the world. There are opportunities to go abroad. Next year some of us are going to Denmark and there is the chance to get selected for the World Jamboree in the USA taking place in 2019.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

We like to take part in community events to be a part of the community and encourage the scouts to take care of their environment.

● WHAT do you enjoy about being a Scout leader?

I like being a leader as you can see the young people develop in their confidence and thinking. It is fun and the leaders have just as much fun as the Scouts do. As a leader you learn new skills, meet other like-minded people and have the privilege to help children achieve their potential.

I have seen children start as Beavers at the age of six feeling nervous, not confident, insular, and finish Scouts with us at the age of 14 confident, knowledgeable, able to do things they thought they would never be able to do. When the scouts leave at 14 there is the opportunity to stay in Scouting by joining Explorer Scouts aged 14 to 18 at Axe Air Explorers. This is the Explorer unit for our group in East Devon and they are based in Beer. Our young leaders are affiliated to this group and join in with their activities and courses.

● TELL us about your recent awards...

I have received two awards recently; one was my 10 year service award and the other was the Chief Scouts Commendation Award for Good Service. This given in respect of not less than five years of good service which stands out. It is regarded as the Chief Scout's recognition of the very real contribution made to the association by the individual concerned.

● HOW did you feel to receive the award?

I was pleasantly surprised to receive this award and it means a lot to me as I strive to give our Scouts the best experience and opportunities I can. I will wear the badge with pride.

● ARE you a member of any other local groups?

I'm a regular churchgoer with my husband at St Michael's and am also learning to ring the bells there. I sing in the festival choir in Uplyme and also take part in a women's morning group sharing thoughts on the Bible, scripture and prayer.

● WHAT do you enjoy doing in your spare time?

I enjoy walking and going out on the kayak (weather permitting). My husband and I have just started sea swimming which is exhilarating though cold at times. I keep chickens and like to be out in the garden.

● WHAT do you like about living in Lyme Regis?

The area around Lyme Regis is awesome. When I start off for work in the morning and the sun is coming up over Portland and Golden Cap, I marvel at what a lovely place I live and how lucky I am to live here. I like Lyme for its busyness in the summer and quieter times in the winter. The people are welcoming and there is a great community spirit with the carnivals and festivals. There is always something going on in Lyme, you can never get bored!

Public reassured over future of GP surgeries

NHS DORSET'S CLINICAL COMMISSIONING GROUP SAY DECISION IS UP TO LOCAL DOCTORS

THE Dorset Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) has reassured the public that they cannot force GP surgeries to close after concerned residents attended a packed meeting in Beaminster last week.

In their primary care review, the CCG gave one potential option for the delivery of this care by reducing the number of surgeries west of Dorchester from eight to three or five, delivering all urgent primary care services from a single hub location, which would be at Bridport Community Hospital. At the meeting, organised by the Tollerford Practice in Beaminster and Maiden Newton, dozens of people voiced their objections of the possible closures and for a potential model of one group of general practices to deliver services through a reduced number of locations.

Speaking at the meeting Sue Sutton, head of primary care, said that there were no proposals in place to close any practices and that the CCG could not force GP surgeries to close or merge with others.

She said: "General practitioners are part of the NHS family but they are independent contractors, we can't force any change, we can tell them what we want to buy in terms of services, but we can't make any practice merge, we can't force any change."

The crowd heard from local resident Eileen Laider, who spoke in support of the great care she receives at her GP practice in Maiden Newton and would fight "tooth and nail" for it to remain.

She said: "If you are having a merger from eight down to a possible five or three, there has to be a closure, there has to be."

"So what would be the plans if the surgery is closed, or the very good treatment that we are getting now has to go elsewhere, what are the plans

by Lottie Welch

lottie@viewnews.co.uk

to give us the equipment. Try showing me a better one, it is impossible.

"I have four members of my family who work in the NHS – Portsmouth, London, Wales and Norwich – they can't believe the treatment we get from our GP practice, it is second to none and I absolutely will fight for it tooth and nail that it doesn't change.

"From my personal experience I hope we never lose it."

Dorset CCG are developing a Primary Care Commissioning Strategy as they believe general practice in its current form will find it difficult to survive if it does not evolve.

The document suggests that better patient experience could be achieved by organising GP practices into larger groups, working together more closely with other providers of health and social care services.

And although the CCG stressed they did not have the authority to close practices, Dr Blair Miller, the CCG's GP chairman and a doctor at Bridport Medical Centre, did give a "note of caution" that things did need to change.

He said: "One of the reasons we are developing this strategy is because practices around the country are closing.

"We are not coming from the position of wanting to change the way that you get your care, what we are hoping to do is make it more resilient so that in the future you will continue to have exactly the same services that you enjoy today.

"The note of caution is look around you and see what is happening. When Dr Bowering in Crossways [in Broadmayne] handed in his notice and left, his single-handed practice closed down overnight and patients had six months to decide what they wanted to do and they ended up being dispersed.

"I am not saying that is going to happen to you at all, but look around at West Dorset, there are a lot of small practices and if they are going to survive into the next 25 years, there has to be a business model."

"At the moment, if we advertise for a new partner, we might be lucky to get one applicant because general practice is not viewed as a popular career for doctors who come out of medical school. The flow of new doctors into the profession is not guaranteed.

"The number of trainee doctors in the country at large is running at about 60 per cent of the intended total, in Dorset it has been down to below 50 per cent.

"For the future we have to think how we can make practices more resilient and one way to be more resilient is to work as a network of practices where you are supporting each other."

Bradpole Preschool autumn fayre

STAFF and children at Bradpole Preschool will be holding an autumn fayre to raise funds for the school.

There will be bric-a-brac stalls, homemade crafts, cakes and children's clothes for sale as well as a range of activities, such as firework painting, make a leaf creature, face painting, cake decorating and a lucky dip.

The event takes place on Saturday, November 5th from 10am to 12noon at Bridport United Church Hall.

All proceeds will go towards repairing their outdoor equipment that was damaged in the storms last year and enabling the school to purchase additional equipment for the children.

Seasonal fun at Symondsburry School

PUPILS get ready to start the annual cross country run around Colmers Hill

PUPILS at Symondsburry Primary School headed off for their half-term break in seasonal style this year – first enjoying a spooky pumpkin party and then participating in the annual school cross country run around Colmers Hill.

The pumpkin party, organised by the Friends of Symondsburry School, included games such as apple bobbing, cupcake decorating and a disco.

Pupils could also try their hand at some crafts, with older children taking home their own jam jar tealight holder, and everybody got into the spirit of the fancy dress competition.

They enjoyed a hot dog supper, with sausages donated by Framptons, and discovered jelly worms at the bottom of their drinks.

Cat Woolner, organiser and chair of the Friends, said: "What a great night! The children got into the spirit of the evening and we were grateful to the parents and teachers who helped out.

"The proceeds from the party will help the Friends continue to support a wide range of extra activities and opportunities for the children, including funding trips and new equipment."

On the Friday, every pupil at the school participated in the annual Colmers Hill cross country run.

Pupils from each class headed off in a circuit of the iconic hill, with younger children being helped along the way by staff and parents.

The Key Stage One winners were Henry O'Dwyer and Eloise Found and the Key Stage Two winners were Alex Cox and Loveday Found.

The fastest eight boys and girls from Key Stage Two will go forward to represent the school in local running events throughout the year, including the cluster run to be hosted by Symondsburry Primary School at Colmers Hill on November 12th.

Headteacher Emma Roberts said: "Well done to all the children who took part – it isn't easy to run, especially for the pupils in Reception for whom it is a totally new experience, and they should feel proud of such a brilliant achievement.

"Symondsburry school is privileged to be in one of the most beautiful rural locations and we are delighted to have the wonderful setting of Colmers Hill available to us.

"Thank you to PE coordinator Mr White who, as ever, organised a great event and to all the parents and staff who helped out."

Cars not the priority in West Bay

■ IN ORDER to facilitate car parking at West Bay, your correspondent fails to appreciate a few points:

1) To tarmac, mark and drain these areas would be costly.

A hard tarmac surface would need drainage to divert rain and storm water – at present the water can seep away naturally.

Surely there are other greater priorities (such as social care, etc) or the money could be spent on an improved summer bus service to West Bay from a car park in Bridport.

2) West Bay is not a car park – it is an informal seaside village, where visitors and residents alike can relax and enjoy the views and atmosphere.

Large areas of tarmac would hugely impact on this, create areas of great heat on hot summer days and change the whole atmosphere to a much more urban and formal one.

3) People and the rural/marine atmosphere are the priority here, not cars.

For those that need it, there is plenty of level parking further along the promenade area.

ALAN BOWLEY,
Bridport

Waterfall of mist

■ THIS incredible photo has been taken from footage shot by a drone, and shows mist flowing off the side of West Bay cliff – just like a waterfall. Local photographer James Loveridge, 26, sent up his drone through the mist last Thursday (October 27th) hoping to get a good clip. The timelapse clip shows mist rolling across the cliff top and down on to the beach where it meets the tide, with a sunrise in the background. Mr Loveridge said the incredible scene was hidden by the mist above the beach, so those below were oblivious to the beautiful scene revealed by the video. He said: "I had seen a similar video from Iceland of the mist rolling off the cliffs, but there wasn't as much mist as this and it didn't have the sunrise. I was hoping to get that shot. I really like that you can see the sun shining down the cliffs." The video was shot between 8am and 8.30am and sped up 10 times. See the video at: <http://bbc.in/2eKV3YE>

Police show their support for Poppy Appeal

A DORSET Police car has been specially decorated with red poppies to show the force's support of the Royal British Legion's annual Poppy Appeal.

Colin Pipe, Acting Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner, said: "Following the success of our specially decorated pride vehicle at Bourne Free earlier this year, many members of the public got in touch to suggest other events they would like to see us support in this way.

"There was huge support for the Royal British Legion's Poppy Appeal, recognising those who gave their lives in combat, and I am pleased that we are able to do something to mark this special event."

Chief Superintendent Colin Searle took the car to the Dorset launch of the Poppy Appeal on Saturday, October 29th in Ferndown.

Following its appearance at the event, the car has been deployed on active patrol in the Poole area for the first two weeks of November.

During this year's Poppy Appeal, the Royal British Legion is asking the public to 'rethink Remembrance' and recognise the sacrifices made across all generations of the British Armed Forces.

Chief Superintendent Colin Searle said: "I am pleased that the public asked Dorset Police to support this good cause.

"I hope that the car will encourage people to go out and buy a poppy for this year's Remembrance and actively engage with the Royal British Legion's campaign.

"I hope that Dorset's residents will appreciate seeing the car out and about over the next couple of weeks."

During this year's Poppy Appeal more than 45 million poppies will be distributed by 350,000 dedicated collectors.

The money raised in the Dorset area will go towards the Legion's 2016 national target of £43million which will be used to continue its vital work delivering practical, through life care and support to the Armed Forces community.

As a result of the public's support in the last year, the Royal British Legion has been able to answer more than 780,000 requests for help from the Armed Forces community.

The Legion uses donations to provide crisis grants, offering the children of Armed Forces personnel adventure breaks, researching the impact of blast injuries on the body, lobbying the government on key issues, and advising on benefits and money problems.

The Royal British Legion is very active in Dorset with approximately 11,000 legion members located across the community in 46 branches.

Jim France, the Royal British Legion's area manager for Dorset, Hampshire and Isle of Wight, said: "We are delighted that Dorset Police has chosen to support the Royal British Legion and the Poppy Appeal in this way.

"I am sure that the sight of the car will encourage the public to recognise the service and sacrifices made across all generations of the British Armed Forces by donating to our appeal.

"The money raised through the Poppy Appeal goes directly to our work providing support through life to anyone who is currently serving in the British Armed Forces, veterans, and their families."

Local drinks experts pull in the crowds at the Venner Bar

THE Big Dorset Tasting event, as part of Dorset Food Fortnight, has proved a big hit once again, with dozens of people flocking to the Bull Hotel.

The event, which took place in the ballroom next to the Venner Bar, featured a range of different Dorset drink producers and lucky guests were able to try a mix of cocktails, wine, beer and spirits.

Lloyd Brown, Venner Bar manager, said: "This year's Dorset Tasting was even bigger and better than last year. We had lots of new faces and delicious Dorset drinks.

"We kicked off with a lesson in mixology with Nick Devlin's entry drink and then Liberty Fields' new vodka Porters Perfection, which is produced in Halstock.

"Next up we had bartender turned distiller David Smith with his first ever spirit, a Dorset Cup, similar in style to Pimm's but with heaps of West Country ingredients and flavour.

"We also had Dorset Star cider, a true artisan product, and, of course, Rupert from Conker Spirit with his ever popular gin.

"After a short break we had the fabulous Comins Tea House who came up with a gunpowder tea cocktail and gave lessons on the art of the Japanese tea ceremony.

"To finish the night we had Mark Banham from Morrish and Banham presenting Furleigh Estates' exquisite wines and, for the finale, Vix from Cerne Abbas Brewery and Dan Green of Dorset Star were two of the producers on hand to tempt the crowd with their Dorset made drinks; Michelle Comins of Comins Tea House served up a gunpowder tea cocktail

Passer-by Sarah helps save collapsed cyclist's life

MEMBERS of the public are being urged to learn CPR after the actions of a quick-thinking local woman helped save a man's life.

Anthony Hodgson, who was visiting family in the area, was cycling from Sidmouth to Bridport last month when he collapsed at the side of the road near Broadoak.

A passer-by stopped as she drove passed and noticed Anthony was unconscious and called 999, however he stopped breathing altogether and she thought he had died.

Sarah Courtney arrived, and although she hadn't had

CPR training for around 30 years, she started the life-saving procedure while on the phone to the paramedics who talked her through what to do and encouraged her to carry on. She did this for eight minutes until the paramedics arrived and used a defibrillator.

Anthony was taken to Dorset County Hospital where he was put in to am induced coma for 48 hours and it was not known if he had sustained brain damage through lack of oxygen to his brain.

Fortunately he came out of the coma fine and doctors concluded he had been suffering from arrhythmia – heart rhythm problems – and he has been fitted with an internal defibrillator.

Sarah said: "It was quite a day and quite scary coming across a cyclist in the road who was showing no signs of life. I haven't done any first aid training for over 30 years so wasn't prepared for what I had to do.

"The ambulance control helped me through everything, giving lots of support and encouragement at all times, but I remember thinking afterwards how I wish I knew more.

"My husband and I took a St John Ambulance Essential First Aid course and I slightly cringed when hearing about all the other things I could have done if I had known. The more people who learn basic first aid is so important.

"So many people said how brave they thought I was and how they probably wouldn't be able to do it. All I can say about that is bravery comes from confidence and confidence comes from knowledge.

"If it is not possible to go on a course then the least people can do is download the St John Ambulance app onto their phones."

Anthony is still recovering from the ordeal but is on the mend and was able to meet Sarah.

He said: "Without the decisive actions on the part of an ordinary passer-by I would be dead, that is the blunt message. It is about people feeling confident they can make a difference, it is worth giving it a go, even if they feel nervous.

"The other unsung party is the paramedics on the other end of the phone, they were talking Sarah through it and telling her to keep going.

"She was completely brilliant, I think she even surprised herself of what she was capable of. It is such a great success story.

"Anyone is capable of doing it if they have learnt the basics and have the courage to do it.

"I really cannot express my gratitude, it is so huge."

Blind club entertained by Players

MEMBERS of Bridport Blind Club enjoyed a visit from the Burton Bradstock Players, who took time out from rehearsals to entertain the club with humorous anecdotes and poems. The players are preparing for their mur-

After the entertainment, the group enjoyed afternoon tea and cake provided by helpers and a raffle.

The club are preparing for their coffee morning at the United

More than 400 objections to Hawkchurch power station

A PLANNING application to site a power station in Hawkchurch has received more than 400 objections.

Plans to build a 'gas fired energy reserve facility' in land off Stonebarrow Road is currently with planning officers at East Devon District Council and awaiting decision.

Stor Power Ltd submitted the application, which proposes a small scale energy reserve facility of up to 20 MW to support provision of local power demand. They report that the proposed development will be predominantly housed within one main engine hall, which could have a maximum footprint of 45.5m x 20.5m. Attached to the hall could be up to ten stacks, each 13m in height, which residents claim is higher than the church.

Residents have come out in force to object to the proposals – there are currently 406 individual objections listed on the East Devon District Council website – and have branded it "totally inappropriate" and "out of character with the area".

Denise Burton, a resident of Hawkchurch, said: "It has all been so hush-hush and nobody has been able to find out anything really about it. It has been done very underhandedly."

"The farmer [the owner of the field where the facility is going] knew from April that this was going to happen, why weren't we told anything about it when it was considered?

"We had six days to put in our complaint, so the parish council managed to get it extended."

"How they can do that is beyond me. We have been here for 20 years and I don't know how those people could do it. We are their neighbours for goodness sake."

A number of other objections on the EDDC's planning site highlighted that the site is an Area of Outstanding Natural beauty (AONB), the height of the building would be detrimental to the landscape, the amount of noise from the facility that could affect residents, it is inconsistent with the local plan and that the village already has its fair share of renewable energy sources with solar farms in the area, as well as concerns it will contribute to heavier use of commercial vehicles at Hunters Lodge, a well-known accident blackspot.

Jon Antoniou, CEO of STOR Power Ltd, said: "Overall it is concluded that the proposed development is acceptable in planning terms and meets the government's objectives to ensure that the UK continues to support the transition to a low carbon economy and to have a safe, secure and reliable supply of electricity."

Royal Naval Association marks Trafalgar Day

RESIDENTS joined the Bridport branch of the Royal Naval Association (RNA) to mark Trafalgar Day in the town.

The new white ensign donated to Bridport Town Council by the Bridport branch of the RNA flew over the town hall to commemorate the Battle of Trafalgar and the death of Admiral Lord Horatio Nelson in 1805.

The branch had a busy weekend with around 40 members and friends attending a black tie dinner at Highlands End Holiday Park on Trafalgar Day on October 21st.

The 'Nelson-Trafalgar trophy' was commissioned by member Vaughan Nelson in 2010 to be presented annually to the 'Shipmate of the Year' as voted by members.

This year's recipient was Peter Ridler, the branch's honorary treasurer/secretary, for his unstinting services to the branch.

Another presentation was a certificate of appreciation from RNA headquarters in Portsmouth to Vaughn Nelson for his efforts over the years, contributing to the success of the branch.

On the Sunday, the Reverend Pete Stone led the Trafalgar service at St John's Church in West Bay. It was well supported by members, family and friends who were joined by Bridport Sea Cadets from TS Keppel.

Bridport Sea Cadets meet at their headquarters at Plottingham Playing Fields, West Allington, on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 7.30pm.

The Bridport branch of the RNA meet at the Conservative Club in North Street on the third Thursday of each month at 7.30pm.

■ THE winners and judges of this years Bridport Story Slam (left to right) Rob Casey, who came in third, Ged Duncan in second place, and Wendy Breckon in first place, with judges Kate Wilson,

Bridport Prize administrator, Nick Macey, manager of Waterstones in Bridport, and Tracey West, a sustainable living author and performance poet

Book festival's Story Slam a success

THE fifth annual Bridport Story Slam, the first event of this year's Bridport Open Book Festival, has been hailed a success.

The slam is the idea of local writer Frances Colville and around 50 audience members and participants turned up for the event.

Writers from all over Dorset gathered to read their prose fiction, which covered a multitude of genres, with each piece lasting no longer than five minutes.

Fifteen performers took to the stage in front of a live audience and three judges: Kate Wilson, Bridport Prize administrator, Nick Macey, manager of the local Waterstones, and Tracey West, a Lyme Regis-based sustainable living author and performance poet.

As well as the friendly atmosphere and great literary talent on offer, the evening also had a more serious element of fundraising for Bridport writer and performance poet, Tom Rogers, who will soon embark on a challenging trek to Malawi on a WaterAid project in memory of his son. He was MC for the evening and also gave a talk about his forthcoming adventure.

Simon West, of Magic Oxygen Publishing - which has arranged to have a tree planted for every participant in their 'Word Forrest' - presented all the participants with a certificate showing the GPS coordinates of a tree already planted in their name.

Mr West said: "Writers use paper all the time and we actively encourage people to plant trees to redress the balance.

"Each tree will lock down around 240kg of CO2 in its lifetime and that will help to keep the planet cool too."

Rob Casey was awarded third place, Ged Duncan came in second and Wendy Breckon came out on top with first place.

Frances thanked the judges and the MC for their hard work, and the arts centre, Waterstones and Magic Oxygen Publishing for donating prizes and certificates, and concluded by saying she was looking forward to future events.

Dorset does well in National Hedgelaying Championships

THE Dorset flag was flying high again for the 38th National Hedgelaying Championships.

Seven competitors from Dorset - all recent participants and winners of the Melplash Agricultural Society's annual Hedgelaying Match - attended the competition in Aldford, Cheshire.

The national competition takes in all counties from Devon and Dorset to Yorkshire, Lancashire and Westmorland with 1,000 metres of hedge being cut, entwined, staked, bound and crooked for the purpose of stock proofing and rejuvenation.

A total of 106 competitors took part in 14 classes, showcasing 10 regional styles.

The judges mark each hedge on a points system, and with excellent examples, it can be the finer points of neatness and uniformity of cutting, straightness of the line of the finished hedge and general appearance that make the difference to results.

The results of the Dorset class were; Russell Woodham in first place, Tim Frampton in second, Lydia Lee in third and Edward Goodfellow in fourth.

Mr Woodham said: "The National Hedgelaying Society and the Dorset team wish to thank Gilly Worth for her generous sponsorship of the Dorset class in memory of her father Kenneth Paul of Whitcombe, Dorchester, and to Melplash Agricultural Society for ensuring the team were smartly turned out."

CAB offers help with energy scheme

THIS year, Bridport and District Citizens Advice could help residents with their energy bills over winter. Citizens Advice could help residents get a discount on their energy bill if they qualify for £140 off their annual electricity bill under the Warm Home Discount Scheme and if their energy supplier is part of the scheme and they are on a low income.

Around 750,000 private renters are stuck in the coldest and draughtiest homes, new Citizens Advice analysis reveals.

To heat their homes to a comfortable standard, these tenants face spending £1,000 more than the national average on their energy bills, but are reliant on landlords to make cost-saving improvements.

Citizens Advice report that some 750,000 private tenants are thought to be living in more than 300,000 properties in England with the worst energy efficiency ratings of F and G.

Renters living in these homes are twice as likely to suffer from damp than any other property, half a million have no access to central heating or storage heaters, nearly two thirds have no wall installation and less than half have modern condensing boilers, which have been mandatory for any new or replacement installations since 2005.

The Energy Act 2011 introduced a legal requirement for all rented properties to have an energy efficient rating of at least band E by 2020. All new tenancies must meet band E standards by 2018.

However, regulations introduced last year means landlords don't have to take any action that costs them an upfront fee.

Gillian Guy, chief executive of Citizens Advice, said: "Thousands of private tenants face a bleak winter in cold and draughty homes.

"Not only do they suffer more problems with damp and poor heating, these private renters also pay way over the odds on energy bills to keep warm.

"But with private tenants footing the cost of heating, landlords have little incentive to make upgrades.

"Our research reveals that many landlords still have a long way to go to bring the worst energy wasting homes up to scratch, so it is vital the government takes action to insist that all landlords, who can afford to, raise standards in the homes they let."

Pensioners who qualify automatically for the Warm Home Discount Scheme – usually those who receive Pension Credit Guarantee – will be informed directly by their energy company and should receive the rebate without applying for it.

Residents can also apply for the £140 if their energy company operates a discretionary scheme and they meet their conditions.

Companies include: Atlantic, British Gas, Co-operative Energy, EDF, E.ON, Ebico, Extra Energy, First Utility, Manweb, M&S Energy, Npower, OVO, Sainsbury's Energy, SSE, Scottish Power, Utilita and Utility Warehouse.

Contact Bridport Citizens advice on 01308 456594 or visit the office at 45 South Street.

Palmers donate profits from food festival bar for schools' sports kits

■ A CHEQUE for £1,500 has been donated to the headteachers of Bridport's pyramid schools by Palmers Brewery

PALMERS Brewery has supported Bridport's pyramid schools with a £1,500 donation from Bridport Food Festival.

The team from the Bridport brewery presented the cheque to the headmasters of the schools – which consist of the Sir John Colfox Academy, Bridport Primary School, St Mary's Primary School, Burton Bradstock Primary School, Loders Primary School, Mountjoy School, Powerstock Primary School, Thorners Primary School and St Catherine's Primary School – to assist with the purchase of new sports kits.

Each year the Palmers events team donate the profits from their bar at Bridport Food Festival to local and regional charities.

Jayson Perfect, tenanted trade director at Palmers, said: "I am delighted that we have been able to support Bridport pyramid schools and their sporting endeavours this year.

"Bridport Food Festival is a hugely popular event which is well supported by the community. It is great that we can pass this support to our local schools."

David Herbert, headteacher of the Sir John Colfox Academy, said: "We are extremely grateful for the donation by Palmers Brewery events team.

"The contribution has been well received by all the school heads and we look forward to investing this money in new sports kit for the children."

Prejudice Free Dorset host second annual hate crime conference

PREJUDICE Free Dorset (PFD) held their second annual hate crime conference this month to challenge prejudice and celebrate difference.

In support of Hate Crime Awareness Week – which ran from October 8th to October 15th – Dorset Police, the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner and partners updated local community groups on progress made since the partnership's inaugural hate crime conference in January.

PFD is a multi-sector group including representatives from the public, private and voluntary sectors.

The group works together to challenge prejudice in Dorset so that all individuals can go about their daily lives safely and with confidence.

The conference provided a platform for local community groups to work with PFD to ensure that the partnership continues to pursue a positive, proportionate and persistent approach to tackling prejudice, which reflects the real issue in Dorset.

Superintendent Nicole Searle, Dorset Police hate crime lead and prejudice free chair, said: "Our message is clear: hate crime will never be tolerated, victims will be supported and perpetrators of such crimes will be brought to justice, wherever possible."

"I welcome the most recent statistics [cumulative results from the victim satisfaction surveys 2015/16 carried out by Dorset Police] that show improvements in Dorset Police's performance when dealing with hate crime.

"Satisfaction with treatment by staff has increased to 95.8 per cent from 88.2 per cent, satisfaction with making contact with the police has increased to 94.7 per cent from 88.5 per cent, and importantly, positive outcome rates have increased from 26.2 per cent to 35.7 per cent.

"Behind the statistics, it is events like these where stakeholders and community groups come together, that help to remove barriers to reporting, improve processes for victims and maintain a partnership approach that reflects the real issues facing our local communities."

During the conference, workshops took place to consider how progress can be made when educating the public about hate crime, how these messages can best be communicated and how victims and witnesses can be encouraged to report hate incidents.

Kerry McGeachy, contract manager for the charity Victim Support in Dorset, said: "Hate crime can be highly distressing as people are targeted because of who they are or who or what their attacker thinks they are. It can also have a wider impact on communities.

"We know that many victims suffer in silence, so it is vitally important that they are encouraged to come forward for help, knowing that they will be taken seriously and get the support they need.

"Victim support offers free and confidential help to anyone affected by hate crime, regardless of whether they choose to report what has happened to the police."

The conference also provided an opportunity to consult with local community groups on the applicability to Dorset of the government's national 'Action Against Hate' plan.

Insights offered will directly shape the full PFD report, which will be published in November.

Colin Pipe, deputy Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner, said: "Many people can be victims of hate crime and targeted for their race, sexuality, religion, disability or transgender identity.

"It is encouraged that more hate crimes are being reported in Dorset, however, we know that this type of crime is generally under reported, often because victims are unsure or scared to tell anyone.

"We need everyone working within the criminal justice system and the public generally to take hate crime seriously to ensure that everyone can access help and support, for example through the hate crime app which allows individuals to report in the privacy of their own homes."

Luke's class coffee morning helps heart charity

A FUNDRAISING coffee morning in aid of the British Heart Foundation has raised more than £300.

Local fitness instructor and personal trainer, Luke Hayter, held the event at Bridport Football Club last week to raise money for the charity and raised a total of £322.70.

He said: "I was really impressed with the turnout. It makes me really happy to see that getting the older population into exercise has created this social group. We started this group in April 2016 and it has grown so quickly becoming much more than just an exercise class. I am very lucky that they put up with me every week."

Anyone who would like to try out some free exercise are welcome to join in. Any ability and age are welcome so contact Luke on 07935 098317 for more information.

Deputy steps up as Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner takes time off for sick wife

DEPUTY Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) Colin Pipe is temporarily filling the shoes of PCC Martyn Underhill, who has had to take leave of absence as his wife is seriously ill.

On Wednesday, October 5th, Deborah Underhill, the Police and Crime Commissioner's wife, was taken to Southampton General Hospital where she has been receiving treatment for a subarachnoid haemorrhage.

Mr Underhill remains in post, but day to day decisions will be made by Mr Pipe until further notice.

Mr Underhill said: "My wife's collapse in Wimborne Square was completely unexpected, and I would like to thank the off-duty nurse who rushed to help, the South Western Ambulance crew who arrived within three minutes, and the superb team at the Wessex Neurological Unit. These professionals literally saved her life.

"My wife's doctors have advised me that it is vital that I spend time supporting and helping her recovery.

"I have absolute confidence in Colin to act on my behalf and I thank Cllr Adams and the members of Dorset Police and Crime Panel for their support during a very difficult time."

Mr Pipe said: "I am saddened by this news and my thoughts are with Deborah and Martyn at this time.

"I would like to reassure the public that, in relation to the work of the office, it is business as usual and we are continuing our work to ensure Dorset residents receive an efficient and effective police service."

Cllr John Adams, chair of the Dorset Police and Crime Panel, said: "The Dorset Police and Crime Panel has the responsibility for appointing an acting PCC and are fully supportive of this interim arrangement.

"As recently as June, the panel had the opportunity to consider and question Colin on his credentials and we are unanimous in our support.

"The Police and Crime Panel convey their sincere wishes to Deborah and Martyn in this difficult time, and their hopes for a speedy recovery."

Roz to tackle silent bike-a-thon

■ LOCAL fundraiser Roz Copson, pictured centre, is at it again, but this time will perform two challenges at once. She will be undertaking a silent bike-a-thon for 12 hours at the Ropemakers pub on Friday, November 4th from 10am.

She said: "I am limited by both physical and mental health problems, so I can't perform any stunning athletic feats. However, over the years I have raised thousands of pounds for good causes. I want people to know that this can be done by anyone prepared to do their best to make a real effort. I am combining two of my previous fundraising activities by keeping silent for a whole day, during which I will be cycling on my exercise bike for alternate hours between 10am and 10pm."

Sponsor and donation forms are available at the Ropemakers pub, Sammy G's in West Bay, the West Bay Hotel, The Greenyard Café and Livingstone Textiles or donations can be made on the day.

THE Weldmar Great Wall of China trekkers at the end of their challenge

VOLUNTEERS who walked the Great Wall of China for the Weldmar Hospice have raised £73,000 for the charity.

The 16 walkers have just returned to Dorset after trekking in temperatures which rose to 22 degrees centigrade in the day and plummeting down to two degrees centigrade at night.

Matt Smith of Weldmar said: "I joined our 16 trekkers on their challenge, and they all coped extremely well. The trek was extremely tough and challenging.

"As well as the actual trek, the team had to live without any washing or toilet facilities and camp outside in very cold temperatures. On one night the camp had to be evacuated due to flash flooding. However, all the trekkers stayed positive - remembering why they had signed up to take part in the challenge."

Elaine Naylor from Portland was one of the Weldmar trekkers.

She said "It has been very emotional; it's been the most terrifying and the most exhilarating experience of my entire life. Tears of joy and tears of laughter."

Viv Morrison from Weymouth, added: "It's been really, really tough, but we worked well as a team and egged each other on - because we knew, at the end of the day, why we were doing this challenge."

Matt said: "On behalf of Weldmar, I cannot thank all of the trekkers enough for their tireless support and enthusiasm over the past 12 months. Every trekker was pushed to their limits whilst in China, but it was fantastic to see everyone pull together as a team.

"£73,127.69 is an astonishing amount of money and will make such a difference to patients and their loved ones here in Dorset. They should all be extremely proud of what they have achieved."

The Great Wall of China Challenge was Weldmar's fourth overseas challenge, following in the footsteps of their previous expeditions - Sahara Desert Trek, Icelandic Challenge and Mont Blanc Challenge.

Weldmar still has a few limited places left for their 2017 challenge taking on the Borneo Jungle.

You can find out more at www.weldmarhospice.org.uk/jungle or by calling 01305 261800.

Sign up for Santa run

RUNNING Santas will once again take to Dorchester's streets for Weldmar's annual Family Santa Fun Run.

The event starts and finishes at Dorchester Rugby Club in Coburg Road on Sunday, December 4th.

The sponsored two mile run will begin at 11am and take participants on a course around the Victoria Park area. Everyone taking part will be dressed in a Santa suit.

This is the sixth Santa Fun Run for Weldmar Hospicecare - which has so far contributed £21,000 to help the local charity support patients and their families across Dorset.

As part of the Family Santa Fun Run, Weldmar will also have a range of Christmas stalls at the Club. The stalls will be open from 9.30am and will include hot refreshments of bacon rolls and bratwurst, mulled wine, Christmas cards and decorations, books, homemade cakes, tombola and craft items.

Katie Slade, Events Fundraiser at Weldmar Hospicecare, said: "This event is always a wonderful way to start the Christmas season. The sight of so many Santas, of all ages, running around Dorchester always fills us with Christmas cheer. This year we are delighted to be hosting this event with our charity partners, Dorchester Rugby Club, and we would love to see more than last year's 165 runners. Why not come and visit our Christmassy stalls and cheer on the Santas as they leave and arrive back at the Rugby Club."

Hunters and riders raise more than £65,000 in air ambulance's coastal cycle challenge

A COAST to Coast cycle challenge team has raised more than £65,000 for the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance.

Nearly four years ago, the racing and hunting community from Cattistock, Portman, South Dorset and Blackmore & Sparkford Vale hunts decided to support the charity by entering a team – Team o' Tumblers – into the air ambulance's Coast to Coast Cycle Challenge.

In the past three years, the team has raised a grand total of £67,734.90 in support of the charity and held a presentation and photo opportunity at the opening meet of the Blackmore & Sparkford Vale hunt last month.

Rupert Rees, spokesperson for Team o' Tumblers, said: "If you ride horses, you are inevitably going to fall at some point, but very often this is in some remote field miles away from anywhere.

"We absolutely love supporting Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance and believe they are such a wonderful charity.

"All sorts of people from the hunting and riding community, mostly with no particular cycling experience have joined Team o' Tumblers over the years and we have all thoroughly enjoyed the fundraising experience.

"As a team, we have managed to do our little bit in the hope that we won't ever need to use the service, however, if the helicopter and crew appear over the horizon to save a friend in need, we are always eternally grateful."

Bill Sivewright, Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance chief executive, was delighted to attend the presentation.

He said: "We are extremely grateful for the long-term support of Team o' Tumblers and it was particularly nice to be able to acknowledge the tremendous efforts of the cyclists and the incredible amount of funds they have raised over the last three years.

"The team's spirit, courage and determination stands out every year during the event.

"Some face the challenge of cycling further than they have ever done before, for others it is about doing so faster than before.

"The team may represent the full range of cycling ability but they are all absolutely top of the range in enthusiasm."

Bin charges labelled 'unfair'

ANTI-litter campaigners have criticised proposals to charge for kerbside recycling bins as "unfair and impractical."

The Dorset Waste Partnership (DWP) is considering charging for the first time to provide bins to new customers – and to charge for those whose bins are damaged, stolen or lost.

"My immediate reaction was that this proposed charge on householders is quite unfair and impractical. I can see new householders simply refusing to have a bin, and surely the DWP wouldn't have the legal right to insist they do when a charge is involved?" said Felicity McLaren from the Stop the Drop organisation which campaigns against littering.

"Fifty-five pounds is actually quite a lot for a household to find..."

"As for the charge for replacing lost or damaged bins, what would be the easiest thing for someone to do who needs a replacement? Unless you burn your property address into the plastic your bin could easily find its way into someone else's garden and you would have no idea where it went."

She points out that apart from damaging a bin by running over it in a car, or someone setting fire to it, as has happened this week in Weymouth, the most likely way damage could be caused to a bin is by the refuse collectors.

ANTI-litter campaigner Felicity McLaren – charges are "unfair and impractical"

"How do you lose a 240-litre bin unless someone else steals it? In which case, why should you pay for replacement?"

The DWP says it is considering the new charges to help meet the cost of delivery bins to new customers.

The organisation claims that each year around 900 new properties are built in Dorset – costing £46,000 to purchase and deliver bins.

Over the same period around 9,000 bins across the county are damaged, or lost, and need replacing at a cost of £159,000.

The organisation is running a public consultation over the proposals which will continue until November 18th with a decision being made in the New Year whether or not to press ahead with the new charges.

Chair of the DWP committee, Cllr Tony Alford, said: "As well as maintaining a high level of service to the public, we regularly review our costs to identify areas where savings can be made.

"We want to hear what people think of the suggestions by completing our online survey.

Those with computer access should visit <https://www.dorsetforyou.gov.uk/new-containers-consultation>

Rotary gives to dog charity

MEMBERS of the Brit Valley Rotary Club have donated £1,000 to assistance dog charity Woofability.

Representatives from the charity were invited to visit the club and bring them up to date on the work they are doing providing assistance dogs to adults and children needing care.

Woofability is a local organisation training assistance dogs for disabled people in Dorset, Hampshire and South Wiltshire. The dogs do many tasks, such as emptying the washing machine and picking up the post.

They have also extended the use of dogs to helping children with autism, and although it is still in its early stages, this work has revealed that these children, who have severe difficulties in communication, will be better able to deal with everyday situations like shopping and walking in public with a dog by their side.

John Dobinson of the Brit Valley Rotary Club presented them with a cheque for £1,000 from funds raised at the Brit Valley Rotary Club Companion Dog Show held at West Bay in June.

Brit Valley Rotary Club welcomes men and women wishing to enjoy life, serve the community and raise money for charities and good causes, local and international.

To find out more visit www.britvalley.rotary1200.org or contact the secretary Richard Jones on 01308 482602.

Local schools' trust celebrates 'excellent' year

THE schools within the Minerva Learning Trust (MLT) – which includes Bridport Primary School, Burton Bradstock Primary School, St Mary's Primary School and the Sir John Colfox Academy – are celebrating a year of excellent results for their students.

The MLT report that all three primary schools have been improving year on year when it comes to the phonics test in Year One and are above the national average.

At Key Stage One there is significant improvements in maths and reading and at Key Stage Two all of the schools were above the national average in either attainment or progress.

The Sir John Colfox Academy celebrated results that were above the national average and progress scores which are in line with expectations for this year group.

Kay Taylor, executive principal of the Minerva Learning Trust, said: "We are in a really strong position."

"I am really enjoying my new role which allows me to work with four such good schools. They are outward looking, always keen to improve and absolutely dedicated to providing the best possible experience for the children in their care."

The MLT recently had its first conference for all the staff, focusing on working together to improve the quality of teaching, learning and support in their schools.

Helen Farmer, headteacher of St Mary's Primary School, said: "I really do believe that the way schools can make things better for all our children is to work collaboratively rather than competitively."

"There is so much talent in our schools and good practice to be shared, it is just a matter of finding the time to work together and the Minerva Learning Trust can make this happen."

The MLT is developing projects to support and improve teaching in our schools.

Working with Andy Tynemouth of Edge Hill University, the schools are involved in a year long project to improve the teaching of mathematics.

Teachers of English and literacy are embarking on project focused on language and communication.

The schools are also developing their relationship with educational psychologist, Jeremy Side, to do more in-depth training on aspects of special educational needs.

Claire Staple, headteacher of Burton Bradstock Primary School, said: "Working together as four schools is really beginning to pay off."

"It is a wonderful opportunity for our staff and children, in a relatively small school, to reap the benefits of belonging to a larger organisation."

The Edge, a framework for schools which helps students develop personal and employability skills, has been a successful programme in the Sir John Colfox Academy and is now being extended to the primary schools.

Debbie Brown, headteacher of Bridport Primary School, said: "The development of the Minerva Learning Trust has been really exciting.

"We are particularly looking forward to using the Edge to further support what we already do to help our students become even better learners and more rounded individuals. Good quality education is not just about tests!"

Students are already benefiting from opportunities to work together. They are preparing for an arts festival in February at Freshwater Holiday Park and have formed the MLT choir.

The schools are also involved in and mural for the work on re-developing the Literary and Scientific Institute and the Sir John Colfox Academy art leaders are working closely with primary schools on this.

Students at the Sir John Colfox Academy also coached public speaking teams for the Youth Speaks competition.

David Herbert, headteacher at the Sir John Colfox Academy, said: "It is great to see our students working together."

"It is good to see them developing their leadership and communication skills. They may even become the teachers of the future!"

AUTUMN HOMES and Interiors

Malabar Trading

IT'S AN especially good time to visit Malabar Trading as there have been many new arrivals from India in the past few weeks. There are limited quantities of some items and most of the textiles are not available anywhere else.

There are new throws and bedspreads, subtle Kani work made from finely woven wool and bolder coloured handstitched throws in cotton. There are also new designs in blockprinted cotton bedspreads.

There are also new designs in blockprinted quilts in several sizes, everyone who owns one will never be without one again!

There are kilim cushion covers in autumnal colours and cushion covers in blockprinted linen.

With a view to Christmas do look at the new Japanese handpainted bowls and cups, as well as the handblown glasses and Moroccan bowls.

Very fine cashmere shawls have also arrived along with woollen shawls and alpaca scarves.

There are also lots of new designs in silver jewellery and more of the very soft lamb's leather purses and clutches will be in the shop soon.

More Turkish kilims are expected mid November.

It's worth bearing in mind that the shop has a policy that allows customers to try textiles and kilims in their homes for a limited period of time.

There is a reason why many designers shop at Malabar Trading and that is because so many of the items are unique and carefully chosen for quality and value.

Devon & Dorset Investment Group

THIS month saw the exciting launch of a new monthly networking group in the historic town of Lyme Regis. The Devon and Dorset Investment Group (DDIG) has been set up by local property developers, Isabel Knight and Steve Colley, (www.espritproperty.co.uk) with the aim of creating an environment for meeting, educating, connecting and collaborating with other local people interested in or already involved in property investment and property development.

Isabel (family in Beer and now resident in Seaton) and Steve (home town Plymouth) have recently moved back to Devon after 15 years living in France, building and renovating apartments and chalets in the Alps around Chamonix. The idea for DDIG came about from their desire to meet and collaborate with other local people investing in property in the area, and the recognition that there are few other property networking groups in East Devon and West Dorset.

The monthly DDIG meetings will provide a great networking environment and also the chance for attendees to learn about property investment and property development, exchange ideas and meet and connect with local experts able to help them fulfil their property aspirations. Local Lyme Regis Architectural Consultant Jim Larcombe will co host the meetings, and Lyme Regis Football Club have kindly donated their venue for the meetings.

DDIG meetings will be open to everyone, no matter how much experience or property they have, as long as participants are serious about becoming even more successful and willing to be inspired to take action.

The meetings will take place every third Tuesday of the month and each month there will be specific topics relevant to property investors, including updates on the local property market and guest speakers who will share their expertise in the market. Rest assured there will be no one selling property at the meetings but there will be a chance to meet others and share opportunities in the local area.

The property seminar will begin at 7pm, however drinks and networking will begin from 6pm. If networking is new to you then don't worry, DDIG will make it easy and fun so that you can enjoy the positive effect of being with like-minded people and also benefit from the practical aspect of tapping into advice, expertise and contacts that you wouldn't otherwise be able to get hold of. Who knows you may find that you meet and make new friends!

So, why not come along to the next DDIG meeting at the Football Club in Lyme Regis on 15th November from 6-9pm: add to your existing property investing knowledge and skills, save yourself, time, money and effort by learning from the experts and build up your personal contacts in the property world. We will have Jim and Steve talking about property development, the inspiring Christeun Gartman sharing his story of getting into property with no money in, we will have another update from Peter Opie on finance options (a key subject for every investor) and Isabel will do another piece of work on building your plan for success.

The meeting is free to attend and there will be tea and coffee available and a bar for those who want something stronger.

Contact Heather Larcombe for more information about DDIG: email: heather@jimlarcombe.co.uk Tel: 07824 861909. Website: www.espritproperty.co.uk

AUTUMN HOMES and Interiors

5 EASY HOME MAKEOVER IDEAS FOR AUTUMN

Take inspiration from our quick tips and tricks to cosy up your home for the new season

Written By Bernadette Fallon • www.goodhousekeeping.co.uk

EVENINGS are drawing in and the weather's turning colder – the perfect time to give your home some TLC. We asked Kate Mooney, CEO at interiors website Houseology.com, for some quick and simple tips for revamping your home.

1. Add Autumn colour and texture: Use cushions, throws and rugs in a neutral colour scheme to add texture and autumnal tones. 'Try a thick weave rug, some fur cushions and a tartan throw to add cosiness without being too overpowering,' Kate advises.

It's a look that works well in a sitting room – and can be applied to bedrooms also. Just choose neutral colours for bedding that work year-round and layer in different textures and tones for the new season.' Blue and white is a great starting point', says Kate, 'then add cashmere and knitted throws in tones of mocha and cappuccino for example'.

2. Create intimate spaces: Team a reading lamp with a cosy armchair, dressed up with cushions and a throw, to create an inviting corner in a living room. You could also use it in a big hallway to create a welcoming feel.

3. Dress up your table for harvest time: Add tones of charcoal and red to your table setting, by mixing some coloured pieces into a basic white crockery set. 'I also like to add some foliage to the table in Autumn,' says Kate. 'You could tie napkins with twine and a sprig of rosemary, or add pots of herbs to the table to create a decorative feature and also allow guests to season their own food!'

4. Choose oversized cushions, a key Autumn trend: Taking inspiration from our Scandi neighbours, scatter a few big cushions on the floor to cosy up the space, or place on the bed for warmth and colour and a cosy alternative to a headboard.

5. Be clever with lighting: Table lamps are the easiest way to update your lighting scheme as the evenings get darker. Update existing lamps with new shades, for an instant makeover on a budget. You could also, explains Kate, mix up inner and outer shades, and opt for a deep orange inner shade to warm up the room without changing your colour scheme.

MOVEMBER

Stop men dying too young

Join the movement for men's health

OUR FATHERS, PARTNERS, BROTHERS AND FRIENDS FACE A HEALTH CRISIS THAT ISN'T BEING TALKED ABOUT. MEN ARE DYING TOO YOUNG. WE CAN'T AFFORD TO STAY SILENT.

THAT'S WHY WE'RE TAKING ACTION!

WE'RE the only charity tackling men's health on a global scale, year round. We're addressing some of the biggest health issues faced by men: prostate cancer, testicular cancer, and mental health and suicide prevention.

We know what works for men, and how to find and fund the most innovative research to have both a global and local impact. We're independent of government funding, so we can challenge the status quo and invest quicker in what works. In 13 years we've funded more than 1,200 men's health projects around the world.

OUR STRATEGY IS ALL ABOUT GOING WHERE MEN NEED US MOST: We know what works for men. We're transforming the way research into men's health is done, and the way health services reach and support men.

We don't take government funding, so we can challenge the status quo and invest quicker in what works.

WE REPORT ON EVERY INITIATIVE WE FUND SO YOU CAN SEE THE EFFECT YOUR DONATIONS ARE HAVING: Thanks to the support of Mo Bros and Mo Sistas we've funded more than 1,200 projects saving and improving the lives of men all around the world. Since 2003, we've committed ourselves to helping men live happier, healthier, longer lives. Millions have joined us.

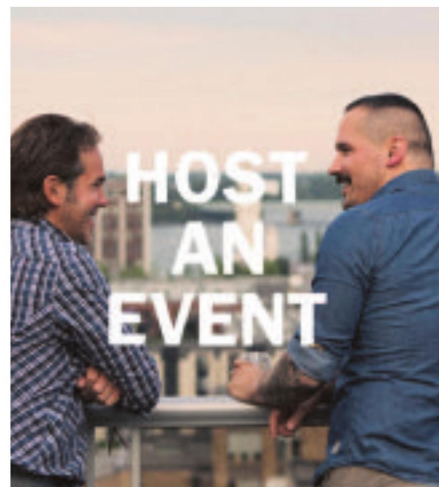

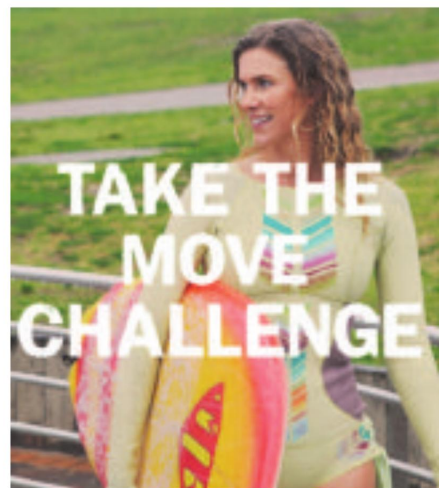

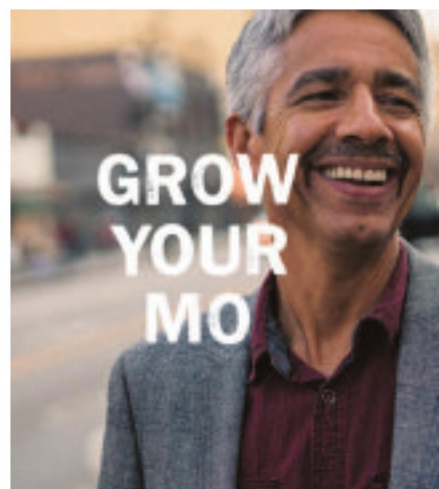

FROM 30 MOUSTACHES TO 5 MILLION, WE COULDN'T HAVE DONE IT WITHOUT YOU: From humble beginnings back in 2003 the Movember movement has grown to be a truly global one, inspiring support from over 5 million Mo Bros and Mo Sistas.

The Movember Foundation wouldn't be where it is without the enthusiasm of all of those men and women around the globe. We're committed to keeping things fresh, keeping the community informed, and always being transparent and accountable in our practices.

By 2030 we'll reduce the number of men dying prematurely by 25%.

Help us stop men dying too young. Join the movement.

MOVEMBER

Stop men dying too young
Join the movement for men's health

OUR CAUSE: STOP MEN DYING TOO YOUNG

THE state of men's health is in crisis. Men experience worse longer-term health than women and die on average six years earlier. Prostate cancer rates will double in the next 15 years. Testicular cancer rates have already doubled in the last 50. Three quarters of suicides are men. Poor mental health leads to half a million men taking their own life every year. That's one every minute.

OUR FATHERS, PARTNERS, BROTHERS AND FRIENDS ARE FACING THIS HEALTH CRISIS AND IT'S NOT BEING TALKED ABOUT - WE CAN'T AFFORD TO STAY SILENT!

The Movember Foundation is uniquely placed to address the crisis at a global level. We're funding ground-breaking programmes all over the world, engaging with men where they are, to understand what works best, to help make change happen sooner.

Our goals are big, but the impact of doing nothing is bigger. We need to act.

What does this future look like? Half as many men dying from prostate and testicular cancer. Half as many men suffering serious side effects as a result of their treatment. A quarter fewer men dying from suicide.

WE'RE THE ONLY CHARITY TACKLING MEN'S HEALTH ON A GLOBAL SCALE: We're doing what others can't. We bring leading experts together from around the world to collaborate on solutions that will fundamentally change the way men are treated and supported.

We know what works for men. By focusing our efforts in three priority areas we ensure that each programme we fund is a step towards our vision for the future.

THIS IS HOW WE'LL WIN THE FIGHT:

- Give men the facts
- Change behaviour for the better
- Create services that work for men
- Bring the brightest minds together
- Listen to the community and advocate for men

INNOVATING ON A GLOBAL SCALE: We can't achieve our goals without building a movement with partners at all levels of government, research and civil society. This has to happen globally, with results shared across borders to extend our reach. We're creating innovative solutions, using new ideas and new technology to solve long-standing problems.

Read about our global programmes on our website: uk.movember.com

ENSURING FUNDING GOES WHERE IT'S NEEDED MOST: In addition to global initiatives, we fund a diverse range of country-specific and local programmes, always ensuring that knowledge gained is shared onwards.

We report on all the initiatives we fund to hold ourselves accountable and to ensure that we're always assessing the success of those initiatives, learning, and improving.

TRANSLATING KNOWLEDGE INTO ACTION:

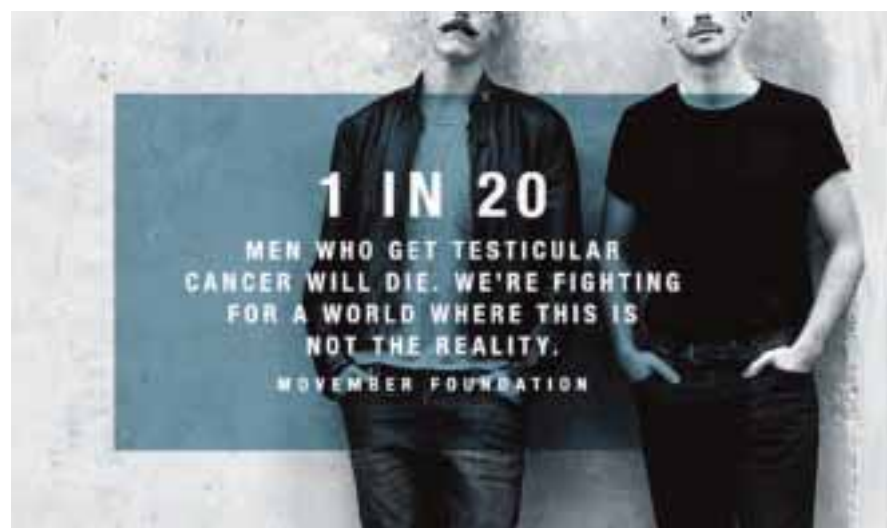

We make the most of research findings to accelerate new ideas into practice, share information and encourage other organisations to do the same.

HOW TO GROW A MO

- 1. BE PREPARED: Before your first follicle appears, decide which moustache will grace your face.
- 2. BE BRAVE: The first few days, even weeks, can be uncomfortable and a little awkward as your facial fuzz grows and your Mo takes shape.
- 3. IGNORE THE ITCHING: Remind yourself that men have endured worse in the past; you can stand a little face tickle.
- 4. SHAPE YOUR MOUSTACHE USING PROPER GROOMING TECHNIQUES: A great Mo comes down to grooming.
- 5. NURTURE IT AND KEEP IT CLEAN: Look after your Mo, and your Mo will look after you.

"Three years after my diagnosis, I've enjoyed my first year of marriage, run my first marathon, realised my dream to become a firefighter, and now I'm expecting my first child in November. I'm determined to never take a day for granted."

Read Adam's story on the website: uk.movember.com

If you ever needed a reason to take a selfie, this is the time. We know you like showing off those moustaches, and we like seeing them. Use #Movember with all your pics and follow @Movember on Instagram – who knows, maybe you'll see yourself on #MoustacheMonday.

The Soulman

LEIGH Coleman and the Matt Carter Trio will provide a double shot of jazz fused with soul, when they play the Jazz Jurassica night in December at By The Bay, Lyme Regis.

Leigh Coleman is now seen as one of the best and most passionate soul singers around, equally at home with the swing of Sinatra to the "get down" funk of Stevie Wonder. He'll be accompanied by Matt Carter, a young keyboard wizard and bandleader, whose dynamic jazz trio and creative arrangements result in an effortless classy chemistry.

Soulman, Leigh Coleman, who's worked with the legendary soul diva Betty Wright in the States, and Joss Stone, brings a soulful jazzy vibe to Matt Carter's exciting piano combo. You're guaranteed a finger snapping evening of soul-driven jazz you won't forget.

Leigh Coleman is developing a national reputation for combining both jazz and funk in a style reminiscent of Stevie Wonder, Gregory Porter and George Benson. He's played alongside Joss Stone, Beverley Knight and Sandie Shaw as well as at Ronnie Scott's.

Matt Carter is a prolific and versatile young pianist who brings dynamism and drive to jazz standards, soul and blues. Already a twenty-something bandleader in his own right, Matt's developing a national reputation for his Matt Carter Trio. Combined with Leigh on vocals, this remarkably strong bill will deliver soulful jazz classics, all night long.

Leigh Coleman and the Matt Carter Trio play at Jazz Jurassica, By The Bay, Lyme Regis on Saturday, December 10th/ Doors open 6.45pm, supper served 7-8pm, music from 8-10pm. Tickets are £19.95 plus booking fee for the jazz and supper ticket (includes a 2-course supper from the table d'ote menu).

Heron warms up at The Lyric before Japanese migration

IT'S NOT often that a missed opportunity becomes a reality. Having shared the stage with the likes of John Martyn, Status Quo, Edgar Broughton Band and David Bowie, '60s band HERON have had a cult following for many years in countries as far afield as Denmark, Argentina, USA and Japan but has rarely performed outside the UK.

Several years ago a tour was set up in Japan only to be cancelled due to the tsunami that struck so unexpectedly. A further tour was cancelled through ill health and it seemed likely that the chance to play there had gone forever. Hiroshi Kuse, the owner of AirMail Recordings and Heron fan, who released their last two albums Simple as 1,2,3 and Jokerman, then persuaded them to visit Japan this November.

As the other band members - Roy Apps, Tony Pook and GT Moore - all live so far apart and have other commitments, they rarely have the opportunity to develop new songs, let alone rehearse, so it's especially pleasing to know they have decided to get together in Bridport and do a warm up gig at their favourite theatre The Lyric (where the band performed the theatre's opening show to a sold out crowd, in 2011).

Fitting it in before flying to Japan means it will be a midweek performance, on Wednesday, November 2nd at 8:30pm and tickets are £10.

Bridport-based band member Steve Jones says "We're none of us getting any younger and the thought of playing in Tokyo and Kyoto after all these years is like a dream come true."

The original '70s albums Heron and Twice as Nice will be re-released in Japan to coincide with the tour.

Tickets are £10, available from Bridport Arts Centre: 01308 424204 and BearKat Bistro. Doors and bar open 8pm for a prompt 8:30pm start.

Improv comedy duo are Wild at Heart

DEVASTATINGLY original, kitsch, playful and surreal, up-and-coming comedy double act Róisín & Chiara invite you to The Lyric Theatre on Sunday, November 6th for their award-winning show, Wild At Heart, a two-woman tour de force told in uncanny synchronicity.

Wild At Heart sees Róisín & Chiara exploring the secrets to success, sexiness and surviving tragedy. Meet Celtic mystics, T4 presenters, singing psychoanalysts and Lord of the Rings-loving Lords and Ladies as they collide and connect in a tapestry of physical storytelling and hilarious observations. Attracting five-star reviews and industry attention, Róisín & Chiara's lightning-paced, rhapsodic storytelling brings to life a plethora of irresistibly well-observed character vignettes unlike anything else on the scene.

The 2015 Edinburgh Fringe marked Róisín & Chiara's debut as a comedy duo and their work in progress earned them five-star plaudits and a feature in Fringe Review. They returned to this summer's Fringe with a polished show which earned them further rave reviews. Come and see what all the fuss is about, on Sunday, November 6th starting 8pm!

Tickets are £10, available from Bridport Arts Centre: 01308 424204 and BearKat Bistro. Doors and bar open 7:30pm for a prompt 8pm start.

Simon and Garfunkel Through the Years

Robinson' 'The Boxer' and 'Bridge Over Troubled Water.' Plus early folk gems and music from Simon & Garfunkel's solo careers, the concert is must see for any fan.

Bookends: Simon & Garfunkel Through the Years comes to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Saturday, November 12th at 8pm.

Tickets are £15 in advance, or £12 on the door. For more details or to book call 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

Catfish Keith brings the Delta Blues to Dorset

CUTTING-EDGE blues singer, songwriter and bottle-neck slide guitarist Catfish Keith has established himself as one of the most exciting country blues performers of our time. Catfish's innovative style of foot-stomping, deep Delta Blues and American roots music has spellbound audiences the world over, and on Saturday, November 5th he is coming to Dorchester Arts. He has reinvented the guitar with great power and artistry, and brings a rare beauty and vitality to his music. Handing down the tradition, Catfish continues his lifelong journey as one of the brightest lights in acoustic blues and roots music.

A two-time W. C. Handy Blues Award nominee for Best Acoustic Blues Album, and 2008 inductee into the Blues Hall of Fame, Catfish has fourteen number one independent radio chart-topping albums to his credit, and packs houses all over the world with his dynamic stage show. The 30-year veteran has toured the USA, UK and Europe dozens of times to wide acclaim, headlining major music festivals, and appearing with legends John Lee Hooker, Ray Charles, Robert Cray, Koko Taylor, and many, many others.

Catfish Keith was born in East Chicago, Indiana on February 9th, 1962. He first heard blues as a child while living in "The Harbor", a working-class, steel mill town. When he picked up the guitar as a teenager, he was inspired to pursue the deep delta blues after being converted by Son House. Following high school in Davenport, Iowa, Catfish hit the road, embarking on a lifelong quest as a solo performer of American roots music.

His travels took him to the Caribbean, where in the Virgin Islands he crewed briefly on a sailboat, soaking up a wealth of island sounds. Rhythms of Jazz, Calypso, Reggae and the music of Joseph Spence gave Catfish inspiration to reach new musical heights. Though he grew up on the Mississippi River, Catfish earned his moniker from a West Indian lobster-diving partner who, after seeing him swim, dubbed him 'Catfish-Swimmin'-Around', and 'Catfish-Steel-Guitar-Man'. In 1984, at age 22, Catfish recorded his first album (on Kicking Mule), Catfish Blues. The all-solo debut established him as a new force in acoustic blues, reaching number one on independent worldwide radio charts.

Since then, Catfish has made a fourteen solo albums, including his latest, Put on a Buzz (on Fish Tail). He constantly tours the world, is a major endorser for National Reso-Phonic Guitars, and his music plays on top-rated TV shows in the USA and abroad. He's also become a respected educator as well as performer, doing guitar workshops, master classes and blues in the schools throughout the world.

Catfish Keith plays at Dorchester Corn Exchange as part of the DA Blues series, on Saturday, November 5th. Doors and bar open 7.30pm, with music from 8pm. Tickets are £13 / £6.50* in advance, £14 / £7* on the door, and Senior Citizen tickets £11 adv / £12 door. *Under 18 or with NUS Card.

Dare Devil Rides To Jarama

New play about the International Brigades and the Spanish Civil War to premiere at Dorchester Arts

A new play based on the experiences of The International Brigades during The Spanish civil War; the powerful political and economic forces engulfing 1930s Europe and the reasons why so many ordinary people made the extraordinary choice to leave family and livelihoods and fight in a brutal war so far from home.

Dare Devil Rides To Jarama by Neil Gore, will premiere at Dorchester Arts this Friday, November 4th.

Compelling and humorous, Dare Devil Rides To Jarama is centred on the contrasting lives of International Brigaders Clem Beckett and Christopher Caudwell. Beckett, a Lancashire blacksmith and famous star of the speedway track, and Caudwell, a renowned writer, poet and philosopher, were killed together at Jarama in February 1937, having become friends as members of the British Battalion's machine-gun company.

Through their stories, the play will shed light on the political and social world of the 1930s and all that inspired and confronted the Brigaders on their journeys to Spain.

It will capture the raw passions and emotions produced by the Spanish Civil War - idealism to despair, hope to anger, determination to fear - through powerful storytelling, stirring song and poetry, and compelling movement and dance.

Combining Townsend Productions' trademark a cast of three playing multiple roles, grand theatrical style and wit with Spanish and political 1930s songs arranged by acclaimed folk musician John Kirkpatrick and, the production aims to bring the full story of the compelling dispute to life in a powerful and thought-provoking new play.

Tickets for Dare Devil Rides To Jarama are priced at £12 (£10 Concs) and can be purchased at the Box Office on 01305 266926 or online at www.dorchesterarts.com

Peafrog Puppetry's tantalising tale is after audience advice

DEEP IN the vaults of an ancient Priory, a monstrous creature awakens... a Cockatrice is born! Knights flee in terror from its deathly gaze. Perhaps the nuns of the Priory will have to face the beast alone...

The Tale of the Cockatrice is Peafrog Puppetry's fun, fascinating journey into truth and legend, monster and myth! Two players spin a yarn straight out of English folklore in this frantic fusion of puppetry, storytelling and live, original music. Inspired by folk tunes and fables, Peafrog Puppetry blends the old and the new in an exciting piece of original theatre for all the family.

Peafrog Puppetry have described their showing at The Lyric on Monday, November 7th as a 'polished scratch performance', so although it will be nearly the finished show, they will still be open to picking audiences' brains after the show! So come and share your thoughts and help shape the direction the finished show takes.

Peafrog Puppetry creates compelling, original theatre with the aid of oddball puppets, live acoustic music and general tomfoolery! Using a range of puppeteering disciplines from Japanese bunraku to marionettes to sock puppets their aim is to create diverse, thoughtful and immensely fun theatre designed for everyone.

The show starts at 7pm, and will last around 45mins to an hour with some time for Q&A afterwards. It's aimed at all ages but particularly 9-10 year olds, though nothing in it is too scary for younger ones!

This performance will be on a 'pay what you can' basis, on the door from 6:30pm.

Breaking the Spell of Loneliness

BREAKING The Spell of Loneliness is a remarkable collaboration between writer George Monbiot and musician Ewan McLennan. They launched their project because they believe that nothing has greater potential to unite and delight than music. They seek to use the music to open up the issue of loneliness, and their performances to help address it.

The project began with an article that the journalist George Monbiot wrote in the Guardian, about the age of loneliness. The article went viral, and several publishers asked him to write books about it. But George had a different idea.

He approached Ewan McLennan – a musician whose work he greatly admired – and proposed a collaboration. Together they would write an album, a mixture of ballads and anthems, some sad, some stirring, whose aim was to try to break the spell that appears to have been cast upon us; the spell of separation. It would touch upon issues as varied as our relationship with nature, our capacity for altruism and co-operation, the politics that lie behind loneliness, and the ways people are together overcoming this social scourge.

Around the time of the album's release George and Ewan will perform a small number of special concerts. George will narrate the show, describe the ideas behind the songs, and encourage members of the audience to engage with each other, both then and beyond the concert. Ewan will sing the songs and perform the music that has emerged from this innovative collaboration.

George Monbiot and Ewan McLennan bring the show to Bridport Arts Centre this Friday, November 4th.

Walter Trout invited the band to support them on his 2013 U.K tour "Laurence is a cross between Eric Clapton & Buddy Guy he is a genius" – Walter Trout.

JEREMY SMITH, Partner of the award winning estate agency Symonds & Sampson LLP in Beaminster, is seen here being presented with a lovely hamper by Mr. George Bannister who recently sold his property through Jeremy's office.

George commented 'I have recently both sold and purchased through Symonds & Sampson and I must say I was very impressed with the service provided by not only Jeremy but all of his colleagues and I hope very much that I can deal with them again in the future.'

Jeremy commented 'I am thrilled that Mr. Bannister was so pleased with the service provided. We do make every effort to sell all our clients properties and indeed according to Rightmove we have currently sold over four times as many properties year to date as our nearest competitor.' If you are considering selling or are on the market without success, why not contact us on 01308 863100 for your free valuation.

SYMONDS & SAMPSON REWARDED WITH AWARDS

AT A GLITTERING dinner at The Marriott Hotel London the cream of the property industry gathered for The International Property Awards and Symonds & Sampson were well represented to see whether they could win for the fourth year running.

Partner Jeremy Smith was impressed with the event "It was a very smart affair with people from all over the UK all jostling for the top awards so it was a very proud moment when Symonds & Sampson's name was called out for two awards.

"The first was for best marketing mainly for our annual magazine Country Matters but also for the theme that we ran for the whole of 2016. This was about dogs and anyone who follows our campaigns would have noticed that on the front of every monthly auction cover, all of our property reviews and throughout the website a dog belonging to a member of staff was featured.

"We now go forward to the International awards, which we won in 2015, and we are hoping we can make many of our worldwide competitors take notice, again, of our firm"

Symonds & Sampson also won the 'Best letting agency in Dorset' and Trudi Gumbrell accepted the award for the firm "I am a great believer in the phrase

'Recognition is the greatest motivator' and winning this is an amazing boost for us. We have made radical changes to the lettings department this year and our clients have been very pleased with the streamlining that allows the managers to concentrate on our core business following the setting up of a central property management department."

The awards season does not stop there, however, with three more London dinners to look forward to. Jeremy is not sure he will be able to fit into his dinner jacket if he goes to all of them!

To find out how our award winning firm can help you please contact your nearest office or Mark Lewis 01258 473766

Renault ZOE arrives in the UK with 250 mile range

RENAULT UK is announcing pricing and specification for the 2017 model year Renault ZOE that was recently unveiled at the Paris Motor Show, complete with the new Z.E.40 battery that has a 250 mile (NEDC) range – the longest range of any mainstream electric vehicle. A new top-of-the-range Signature Nav trim level has been added to the ZOE line-up for the 2017 model year which goes on sale today and will arrive in UK showrooms from January 2017.

With a 250 mile (NEDC) range, ZOE offers the best range of any mainstream electric vehicle. In real-world driving, Renault estimates the ZOE fitted with the new Z.E.40 battery has a real-world range of between 186 miles in temperate conditions and 124 miles in extreme cold conditions.

ZOE is now offered with a choice of two batteries – the new Z.E.40 battery and the existing 22kW battery. The entry level Expression version comes with the 22kW battery whilst Dynamique Nav and above are offered with the new Z.E.40 battery enabling owners to choose a ZOE that suits their individual requirements. The Z.E.40 battery is available with an optional Quick Charge facility that reduces charging times even further. All ZOEs sold to private customers are supplied with a fully-installed 7kW fast-charging box that enables convenient charging at home.

The updated ZOE is being expanded to a five-version line-up based on three trim levels familiar to owners of other Renault vehicles – Expression, Dynamique Nav and the new top-of-the-range Signature Nav. ZOE remains available to purchase with a monthly battery lease agreement or outright with no battery lease agreement.

The Expression trim level provides buyers with a comprehensive specification with a 7-inch touchscreen housing Renault's easy-to-use R-Link2 infotainment system with TomTom® satellite navigation; climate control, electric windows and electric heated mirrors, cruise control, speed limiter, keycard, Bluetooth connectivity and ample storage throughout the cabin.

Renault's Range Optimizer technology ensures ZOE is highly efficient with its heat pump, a bi-modal braking system and Michelin ENERGY E-V tyres. ZOE's Chameleon Charger™ ensures that ZOE adapts and always charges from a source at the highest rate possible, thus lowering charge times.

Renault's Z.E. Connect app allows drivers to remotely monitor battery levels and charging status via their smartphone or computer. The ZOE Expression is available with the R90 22kW battery enabling a range of 149 miles (NEDC) and a charging time of 3 to 4 hours (0 to 80 per cent full).

ZOE keeps occupants safe with a five-star Euro NCAP rating and standard safety features such as ESC with traction and understeer control, Hill Start Assist and front and side driver and passenger airbags.

The ZOE Dynamique Nav adds to the Expression specification with a hands free keycard, automatic lights and wipers, rear parking sensors, rear electric windows and electrically operated, heated and folding door mirrors, 16-inch 'Black Shadow' alloy wheels and a leather steering wheel and gear lever. In addition to the Z.E. Connect app, the Dynamique Nav benefits from a one-year subscription to the Z.E. Interactive app. Via a smartphone or computer this allows you to remotely charge your ZOE and schedule charges, as well as cabin temperature preconditioning, in order to maximise convenience and take advantage of available off-peak electricity rates.

The ZOE has been awarded the title of What Car?'s 'Best Electric Car under £20,000' for the last three consecutive years and was recently named 'Best Supermini' in the Auto Express Driver Power 2016 survey, coming second overall out of 183 vehicles. ZOE was named a Which?' Best Buy' in August 2016.

Perfect 10! Charmouth hit goal trail

Beaminster still unbeaten - Pymore go top - Lyme Rovers hit by Farway fightback - Hounds in semi

Exwick Village 3
Lyme Regis Reserves 1
Devon & Exeter League D6
SOME indifferent defending cost Lyme Regis Reserves dearly as their impressive six-game winning run came to an end.

"They (Exwick) had three attacks in the first half and scored each time following mistakes by us, whereas we had plenty of possession but only mustered a couple of half chances," said Lyme manager Gerard Hitchcock. As early as the second minute centre back Wallace Blackmore uncharacteristically missed a challenge and the hosts took the lead with a low bobbling shot that dribbled over the line. It was 2-0 in the 20th minute when a misplaced pass from skipper Alex Rowe was pounced on.

The resulting cross zipped across the six yard line and was bundled home with Lyme keeper Rob Thom adamant that the Exwick striker had handled: "To be fair there was no way the ref could have seen it," said Hitchcock.

Worse was to follow as three Lyme defenders missed challenges and another poked shot bobbed over the line via the inside of the far post.

The Seasiders pulled one back in the 75th minutes when striker Ryan Fifer spotted the home keeper off his line and curled home a superb 25-yarder.

And they should have snatched a point but failed to take any of half a dozen clear cut chances in the closing minutes.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE
DIVISION ONE CUP QF
WAYTOWN HOUNDS 3 UPLYPE 0
GOALS from Jon Legg (2) and Adam Cody-Boutcher saw Waytown Hounds set up a cup semi-final at Forton Rangers.

Legg was thwarted by a fine one-on-one save by keeper Marcus Bearpark early on. But Boutcher opened the scoring soon after. Legg made it 2-0 after good work from Sam Dowle but the Hounds were also indebted to a couple of fine saves from keeper Lee Cuff.

The scoring was completed when San Rawlings' free-kick came back off the post and Legg tucked it away. Afterwards Hounds' manager Joe Carter said: "I was delighted with the whole team. The attitude, commitment and effort were superb and we got our just rewards. Both Full backs, Leigh Hansford and Lee Quincey performed very well, with Dan Rawlings and Tom Knott solid at the back."

Uplyme joint-manager Jon Matthews told ViewSport: "We played well at times and showed what we were capable of, but just didn't do it enough."

"Both goals were really avoidable. Steve Batey had an effort ruled for off-side with 20 minutes left - which we felt was a really tight call. If that had stood, I think it would have kick started our game."

"Unfortunately they scored not long after to make it 3-0 and the game was gone."

Semi-Final draw:
Forton Rangers v Waytown Hounds, Hawkchurch Utd v Merriott Rovers.

◆ GOAL: Adam Cody-Boutcher

BEAMINSTER 2 CHARD UTD 0
DEPLETED Beaminster, shorn of five regulars, still proved too strong for Chard United who are still to register their first league win of the season.

Shane Evans fired the Rainbows ahead early on but they were guilty of missing a host of good chances and had just the solitary goal to show for their efforts at the break.

Robin Jones added number two and the result was done and dusted. With manager Gordy Childs unavailable, Adam Herring was in the dug out for the hosts and he picked out the midfield trio of Josh Baker, Jamie McClements and Ash Walkey as the top performers.

COMBE RESERVES 1 BARRINGTON 4
BARRINGTON remain in contact with the early season pacesetters with a workmanlike win at Slades Cross.

"We weren't at our best, I had to make five changes after picking up some injuries in last week's cup win, but we got the points," said manager Sid Brown.

Combe went close to scoring early on but stand-in keeper Sam Spurway made a great one-on-one save.

A Guy Dare strike had the visitors ahead at half time. And Dare struck again after the turnaround following good work from Mike Whitefield who netted the third himself.

Spurway then conceded a penalty which Josh Manley converted to gave Combe hope, but George Hayward rounded off the scoring at the other end.

SHEPTON BEAUCHAMP 3 MISTERTON 0
A GOOD team performance saw Shepton Beauchamp leapfrog over visitors Misterton and up into fourth spot.

The returning Charlie Rutter got on the end of a George Pugson cross to put the Old Monsters ahead.

They should have added more before the interval but had to wait until the second period when the in-form Brad Pitman bagged a brace.

SOUTH PETHERTON 6 DRIMPTON 0
"WE could, and should, have had double the goals," said South Petherton manager Karl Diment.

As it was the Magpies had the game won by half-time thanks to goals from Ash Smith, Dean Smith, Ryan Thurgood and Dan Kadir.

Ash Smith and Kadir added to the tally after the interval.

Diment also confirmed that Tom Case and Danny Rendell had signed dual registrations with Glastonbury, but would only play when Pethy had no game.

W & M CHINNOCK 3 NETHERBURY 0
NETHERBURY were made to pay dearly for a mad 15 minute spell midway through the first half as their search for a point continues.

With injuries and unavailabilities a number of younger players were given the chance to start and more then held their own in the first 20 minutes with Charlie Morgan and Luke Ward-Jones having a good opening spell.

However the hosts grew into the game and keeper Arthur Gay was called upon to make two fine one-on-saves when The Chinns broke down the slope.

The hosts went 1-0 up in 22nd minute after a corner was not cleared and palyer-manager Dan Harvey poked the ball home through a series of bodies.

For the next 15 minutes the Ambers lost their shape and heads. With Chinnock buoyed by the goal they attacked well down the flanks and Gay was called upon to make two more great saves.

The lead was doubled when a cross from the right was headed in by the unmarked George Pitman. Soon it was 3-0. Some missed tackles allowing Liam Bennett to finish well.

Going down the slope in the second half Netherbury had the hosts under some pressure in the final third on a couple of occasions.

Ash Carter went on a fine solo run, but his final shot was well blocked. Steve Combes produced what would have been the goal of the season when his half volley from 35 yards was tipped onto the crossbar.

At the other end Gay was still called upon to make two more top saves to keep the score down and it finished 3-0.

Netherbury Joint Manager James Sayers said: "We were in the game until they scored and then perhaps we showed some inexperience and that 15 minute spell was too much for us to come back from."

"We had a young team and I hope they will benefit from this experience in the long run".

He picked out Gay along with Ryan Kingston and the returning Lloyd Wakely for their performances.

DIVISION ONE
HAWKCHURCH UTD 8 S PETHERTON RES 1
FORMER Beer Albion striker James Melville took his tally for the Hawks up to 20 in just six matches with a double hat-trick as South Petherton's tough season continued.

Simon Herrod and Jack Larcombe also found the net for the hosts with Dan Goodson on target for Pethy.

PYMORE 2 SHEPTON BEAU RES 0
PYMORE moved to the top of the table despite still having personnel problems. "We've yet to be able to pick from our full squad," said Pymore's Matt Tither.

Tither had a hand in the opening goal when his corner was headed home by Liam Procter.

Terry Crocker equalised midway through the second half but it was Procter who bagged the winner ten minutes later following a surging run from Mick Gilmore.

DIVISION TWO

CHARD UTD RESERVES 0 CHARMOUTH 10
A LIGHTENING start from the Robins had the game as good as won inside the first five minutes at Jocelyn Park.

In that time the visitors had struck three times and went on to ease into a 6-0 lead at half time.

And Chard's woes continued after the interval as Charmouth racked up their biggest win for 13 seasons.

Paul Miners and Dan Rumsby both claimed hat-tricks with Brin Seward (2), Jake Reeve and Bill Ward grabbing the others.

"Chard were never in it, we dominated for the entire 90 minutes, I'm really proud of how the team performed," said Charmouth manager Kevin Pratt.

DIVISION THREE

FARWAY UTD RES 4 LYME REGIS ROVERS 3
A LACK of concentration in the final quarter of the match saw Lyme Rovers let slip a 3-0 lead at Eastlee Park.

The Seasiders sailed into the lead in the 2nd minute when Ryan Turner's inch perfect through ball found the free-scoring Pete Peacock who slotted past stunned keeper Josh Allen.

The second goal came from the penalty spot in the 18th minute when referee Steve Loud spotted a handball in the area and Peacock did the rest.

And it got better for Lyme. Rhys Evans, back after a five-month stint coaching in California, burst down the right flank and struck an early angled shot that skipped across Allen and into the far corner.

But the fight back began in the 22nd minute when Lyme skipper Jedd Whittington was adjudged to have pushed an opponent and Tim Herrod slotted the resulting penalty past keeper Ben Croad.

At the other end Evans went close with a free kick, but Farway were soon right back in it when Paul Salmon rode a rash challenge from Croad and knocked the ball into the empty net.

Lyme responded and Peacock was narrowly wide with a near post volley from a corner and Jack Turner had a shot saved by the feet of Allen.

Farway went close to equalising just before the interval but Croad did well at full stretch to beat out a free kick.

The second half was fairly even as the heavy surface began to take it's toll. Whittington was inches over with an audacious chip from 40 yards on the hour mark, and was then unlucky with a header that bounced just wide.

It appeared as though Lyme might just hang on but in the end they were beaten by two scrambled efforts in the last seven minutes.

A disappointed Lyme manager Terry White can at least be encouraged by a fine performance from the improving Jamie Williams in a back four containing Jamie Quarrington, Jim Larcombe and Robbie Fowler who looked solid for 70 minutes.

UPLYPE RES 6 CHARD UTD ALL STARS 0
UPLYPE bounced back from an indifferent spell with a 6-0 hammering of struggling Chard Utd All Stars.

They took the lead when Frank Harris netted after Hakim Bibb had been denied.

James Souter-Phillips then went close with a header that struck the crossbar but it wasn't long before an OG made it 2-0 at half time.

The home pressure continued after the interval and MoM Souter-Phillips struck the woodwork again before Lorcan Hankin added number three.

Souter-Phillips finally got on the score sheet with a fine finish from a tight angle having squandered a couple of far easier chances.

Birthday boy James Whetlor made it 5-0 from the penalty spot and Jonnie Harris added number six.

West Dorset strike Gold

Camourne SoM West Dorset 3

AFTER the mammoth round-trip down to deepest Cornwall to take on the Cambourne School of Mines, West Dorset were given the perfect start when Matt Stone picked up a ball hit into the D and instinctively swept the ball into the goal.

The hosts responded with a quick break and some weak West Dorset defending allowed them to level the score.

But West Dorset regained the lead before half-time when a short corner found Rick Steele [who drilled the ball home.

After half time C.S.O.M won a short corner which converted but then dubiously disallowed. By now the decisions were taking their toll on some of the youthful opposition who where questioning the umpires only to gain themselves a five minute break!

C.S.O.M. played hard but some of their tackling was agricultural to say the least giving the West Dorset sticks a lot of abuse, whilst the umpires didn't stamp it out it did gain another youngster a five minute breather.

Both teams slugged it out to the final whistle with Alex Davies managing to score a 3rd goal to make it a convincing win for West Dorset and putting them 4th in the league

The team head off to face Plymouth University next Saturday.

Hawks all at sea

West Dorset Hawks A 1 Chard B 3

THE Hawks suffered their first defeat of the season to a well-organised Chard B side, assisted by questionable substitutions made by the home team captain.

From the start, Chard started the stronger and literately set up camp in the Hawks' half.

The Hawks starting back four of Henry Middleton, Giles Maltby, Rob Clarke and Krystian Dubas were kept under constant pressure by continuous waves of attack from the visitors during the opening 10 minutes.

But the defence, supported well by the midfield of Simone Wakely, Jules Lawrence and Ollie Gargrave, held strong and limited Chard to a handful of half chances on goal.

Against the run of play, Hawks then took an unlikely when Richard Wilson pushed the short corner to Middleton, who teed up John Kellas to fire an unstoppable shot into the bottom corner.

But Hawks discipline waned under the constant attacking threat, and a rash challenge saw Jayson Perfect receive his first green card in only his third match.

Defensive matters were not made any easier by Hawks Captain, Alex Drew. Making use of a rare substitute, Drew's rotation policy left players defensively disorientated.

After the interval Chard eventually broke their deadlock after a number efforts on goal. Their first goal could be considered fortunate as a potential stick tackle went unseen by the umpires, leaving the ball to be drilled home after a scrappy play in the scoring D from both teams.

Chard's second was a schoolboy error from goal-keeper Drew. Believing the near post was covered he let a fiercely hit shot from an acute angle slip between pad and post.

Chard found their 3rd goal following another disastrous substitution call by Drew.

Instructing Lee Connolly to swap with left back Middleton at what seemed to be an appropriate time, Chard counter attacked and their right winger ran unopposed into the D before hitting an early shot that found the far post.

A competitive game threatened to boil over at times, and Hawks' frustration resulted in another green card for Dubas, and a yellow for Clarke following a harsh decision from the umpire after Clarke's perfectly timed tackle.

The defeat sees the Hawks slip to 4th in the table ahead of Saturday's visit by third-placed Tiverton.

Fricker off as tempers flare

Bridport 0 Melksham Town 1

Toolstation Premier - att; 118

AFTER three wins on the spin, Bridport's promising run came to an end in a bad-tempered 1-0 defeat at St Mary's on Saturday.

After a fairly low-key opening quarter the match suddenly exploded when referee Richard Lawrence appeared to intend to caution Braeden Symes for what he deemed a foul, but then proceeded to produce a red-card. This led to heated protestations by the Bees and the official eventually switched this to a yellow.

Symes went close to breaking the deadlock early in the second-half with a free-kick that just cleared the visitors' crossbar.

Play then switched to the other end and Bridport keeper Jason Hutchings was called upon to make series of fine saves.

Then centre-back Leigh Bailey came to the Bees rescue with a goal line clearance only for Lee Davidson to bundle the rebound over the line.

Bailey was booked for a foul soon after - an incident that led to Bridport manager Adam Fricker being sent to the stands for his comments to referee Lawrence.

The visitors went close to increasing their lead in final minutes with a couple of headers just over the crossbar and Bailey clearing from under his own crossbar once again.

Bridport were in action last night (Tuesday) with a Dorset Senior Cup quarter-final at SWANAGE & HERSTON when Fricker confirmed he would be resting Ed Butcher and Dan Peach and possibly Mark Salter.

This is followed by Saturday's visit to third from bottom BITTON who are on a miserable run of four straight defeats.

Bridport: Jason Hutchings, Leigh Bailey, Andy Martin, Louis Rutter, Alan Hill, Ryan Hayter, Ben Haines (Elliot Mann 82), Dan Peach, Mark Salter, Braeden Symes, Ed Butcher. Unused subs: Gary Bulman, Adam Barratt, Will Spurway.

BRIDPORT Reserves winless run was extended to four games with a 3-0 defeat against Westland Sports at Alvington on Saturday.

Next up for the Bees' second string, now with just one win in nine outings, is Saturday's trip to face fourth-placed Hamworthy United Reserves on the new 3G pitch at County FA headquarters.

THE Swanage RBL and Bridport 3rd team's joined the other Bridport team's in observing a minute's silence in memory of long time Bridport supporter Max Dare who had died during week.

When play got underway the unbeaten home side bossed the game with a level of maturity and experience that the young Bees and they duly took the lead through Darren Bennett.

But Bridport rallied well soon drew level with a header from Jaydon Scadding.

Back came the Swans and the Bennett struck again with Carl White also on target as they led 3-1 at the interval.

The next goal was to prove crucial and it went to Bridport as Brandon Scadding made it 3-2 before a superb Rhys Williams free-kick square things up at 3-3.

The winner came deep into stoppage time when Ali Kamara got on the end of a fine cross.

The leaves Bridport, now back up in third spot, as the lone unbeaten side in the Division ahead of Saturday's trip to face Crossways Spitfires.

Stableford goes down to the wire

WATCHING the results of the OCTOBER STABLEFORD, DIVISION ONE was gripping, as early leader Jon Ebdon posted 36 points in favourable conditions. Results came and went and it was not until Jim Allan's 36, with a better back nine of 18 points, that the lead changed.

Late starter and eventual winner, Simon Brown, scored 19 points on the back nine in his 36 points a worthy winner on countback as all three finished on 36.

Although closer, there was no doubting the DIVISION TWO winner, as an in-form Rob Crabbe scored eight points on the last two holes to card the best score of the day with 40 points, despite a slight dip in form in the middle of the round.

This excellent score was almost matched by John Cleal who only fell one point short on 39, while Michael Gill's 38 secured 3rd.

In the Ladies' OCTOBER STABLEFORD Cyndy Mudford had her second win in a week, as she finished top of DIVISION ONE with 34 points, courtesy of a brilliant back nine which pushed Rosemary Shepherd into second place on countback. Jean Jolley finished 3rd with 31 points.

It was also a close run thing in DIVISION TWO as Lesley Jelleymann's superior back nine won it on countback from Mary Golding, both with 31 points as Kate Helm secured 3rd with 29 points.

The JUNIOR STABLEFORD saw a first win for Mannie Wellman as he scored consistently well to finish better than par and win with 37 points from junior captain Lewis Gibbons 35 points and Ben Prosser 3rd on 33.

♦ MISSION ACCOMPLISHED: Football fan James Bennett completed 'The 92' last Saturday.

James, from Lyme Regis, attended the Preston North End v Newcastle Utd match at Deepdale to complete the full set of visits to all 92 current league grounds.

"In fact I've been to 129 grounds where league football has been played," said James whose very first ground was Bristol City's Ashton Gate.

When pushed for his 'best and worst' James selected Villa Park (Aston Villa), Hillsboro (Sheffield Wednesday) and Valley Parade (Bradford City) as his favourites, closely followed by Molineux (Wolves) and The City Ground (Nottingham Forest). On the flip side he won't be rushing back to Doncaster Rovers, Colchester United or Scunthorpe Rovers - "They're all boring newish grounds located away from the town centres".

Next up for James, who still plays turns out for Lyme Regis FC are the Scottish League grounds and more English Non-League.

♦ FINAL BOX TICKED: James Bennett at Deepdale on Saturday.

Lyme Regis Sailing Club

Club members carry on tradition

THE Prescott Trophy, traditionally sailed in fancy dress and the last race of the main sailing season, was held on Sunday in conditions that race officer Pete Thomas described as 'enjoyable if not exciting.'

A line-up of crews in various outfits over their sailing gear was followed by the 16 competitors drifting out to the start, but after the first series race, the Prescott Trophy benefited from a breeze which kept the fleet moving steadily.

Sunshine and warm temperatures are unusual for this stage of the season, and the first four on handicap finished within a minute of each other after an hour long race.

Jerry Rook and Helen Bruno had a 20 second lead over Colin Walters and Simon Law.

The first nine boats completed the race within five minutes of search other.

The winter season continues for a handful of keen racers until Christmas.

The Youth Section prize giving takes place next Saturday before the town fireworks.

Bridport mourns death of Max Dare

BRIDPORT Ladies B team continued their great start to the season in the County League, picking up maximum points at home against East Dorset B, winning 48-25 overall.

Captain Barbara Jenkins led the way with Sylvia Fletcher, Joan Higman and Anne Parkins 29-11 up, backed up by Lyn Sandall, Rosie Wilton, Joan Griffiths and Jenny Harding who won 19-14.

Frances Hewett, Laura Taylor, Gill Hunt and Pat Cornick picked up two points for the A team with a 21-18 win at Wellworthy who collected the extra four points for an overall win as Pamela Daters, Lyn Craddock, Margaret Pestelle and Sue Walsh lost 14-24.

Martin Wilton, Keith Brooks and Brian Rumble had a fine 25-10 win for two points in the Purbeck Trophy League against Bournemouth, Bridport again missing out on the extra points for overall win as Dave Roberts, Bob Taylor and Ivor Parker were surprisingly beaten 10-27. Bridport's A and B sides both made winning starts in the Dorset over 60s league, picking up maximum points against the Dorset Bowls Resort.

For the A team Brian Legg, Peter Sandall and Mike Craddock destroyed their opponents 30-12, Tony Bartlett, Mel Hargett and Keith Jenkins scored a late six count to win 21-19.

Brian Baker, Bob Hill and Mike Fletcher won 19-8 for the B team, Barry Mapson, Mel Griffiths and Phil Hedges 16-14 winners.

Sadly Bridport's Max Dare has lost his battle against Motor Neurone Disease and died on October 25th.

Max was one of the town's best known characters and was a member of both the Indoor and Outdoor Bowling Clubs and a great supporter of the town's football club.

Spokesperson Brian Baker said: "Max played over a 100 times for the County team over the past three decades and he was looking forward to playing in the County over 60s league, so perhaps it was fitting that both sides won their first match.

"Max may be gone but he will never be forgotten by those who the pleasure to know him."

Gig Rowing

Inaugural Jurassic Juniors Regatta a huge success

LYME Regis Gig Club recently hosted the first ever junior rowing regatta on the Jurassic coast.

Mainly involving under 14s crews, the Jurassic Juniors Regatta took place in cool autumn sunshine from the main beach then heading east towards Charmouth.

The format followed a 'barbarians' style where rowers from different clubs were mixed up. This gives the youth rowers a chance to meet and row with others from outside their own club. It also requires great concentration as they need to adjust to stroke type and timing with different rowers.

A total of 60 competitors came from across the Jurassic coast gig clubs including Bridport, Weymouth, Portland, Swanage and Lyme Regis plus rowers from Langstone Cutters in Portsmouth.

Crews rowed in Lyme's own gigs of Black Ven, Tempest and Rebel. The morning was made up of three heats of three boats in each heat.

After a short lunch break the mornings 3rd place boats raced, followed by the runners-up and the final was made up of the winners from each of the morning heats.

Close final race

The final was a tight race for the first few minutes but slowly Rebel and Tempest pulled clear of Black Ven.

These two were neck and neck but gradually the Tempest crew showed better discipline in keeping perfect timing with each other to gradually pull away to cross the line in first place and the first Jurassic Juniors Champions.

The winning crew were made up of Tallulah and Guy (from Weymouth), Oli and Josh (from Bridport) and Lyme's own Seb and Gracie.

A LRGC spokesman said: "A huge thanks must go to Kerry Maguire for organising the event along with Diana Dixon, Henry Barlow and many others who helped make the day a huge success.

"The club would also like to thank the Harbour Master, the club sponsors, Lyme Regis Town Council and all the clubs who took part. Hopefully 2017 will see the growth of the Jurassic Juniors Series as a key event in the gig rowing calendar."

◆ GREAT FUN: Some of the 60 rowers from the six clubs who took part in the Juniors Regatta.
